Product Description

Swarovski Lead Crystal Metaphysically, glass/leaded crystal represents and carries the energies of transformation, merging of elements, rebirth, focus and communication. The colors of the glass bring the vibrations of those specific color energies. All Feng Shui Bagua Light Catchers have a Swarovski faceted prism to disperse and deflect one's negative chi. The main purpose of faceted crystal balls in Feng Shui is to transmute energy. When hard, or negative energy enters the ball, the facets deflect the energy, breaking it up and turning it into gentle, or positive energyread more about [Swarovski Crystal]
